

Key Performance Indicators	Year 5 Milestones - Citizenship
To debate	I can express my opinion.
	I can respond to questions posed.
	I can accept others' point of view and be able to suggest alternatives in response to their ideas.
	I can promote own ideas within a debate context.
	I can present a logical argument.
	I can adapt to a range of roles in group discussions.
To be an active citizen	I can explore the long-term future of the human race and how we can help.
	I can explain the terms 'citizen' and 'community' and begin to see the importance of taking an active role in the communities I belong to.
	I can recognise and explore a range of opinions on how best to help working children (child labour).
	I can create and identify some different rights and responsibilities which we have as young people.
To understand the political and legal systems of the United Kingdom	I can explore what living in a democracy means and how people take part in it.
To be financially capable	I can explain the difference between needs and wants and learn how to budget my money.
To learn about national, regional, religious and ethnic identities in the United Kingdom	I can compare how our lives and identities are different to those living in other countries.